

It is the mission of the Indian National Finals Rodeo to provide, promote, and preserve the advancement of Professional Indian Rodeo by empowering families, youth, and communities through positive role modeling, educational opportunities, competition, culture and tradition.

Indian National Finals Rodeo 2019 comes to a close. Look out 2020 we are coming at you!!!

2019 saw another successful rodeo season at several Tour and Region rodeos with record entries and payouts. Tour rodeos paid out over $1.1 million in the major events and over $256 thousand in the Jr/Sr events. The Indian National Finals Rodeo (INFR 2019) at the South Point this year alone paid out over $500 thousand in prize money, not including awards.

We would like to thank all members, committees and personnel that continue to work hard to make Tour and Region rodeos and the INFR happen – with this support Indian Rodeo continues to grow.

INDIAN NATIONAL FINALS RODEO (INFR) TO BE TELEVISED ON RIDE TV

Complementing Unprecedented Live Championship Round TV Coverage, All Rounds ~~to be~~ Streamed Live on RidePass

PUEBLO, Colo. (September 18, 2019) – For the first time, the Indian National Finals Rodeo (INFR) was televised, with RIDE TV carrying the Championship Round live from South Point Arena in Las Vegas on Saturday, October 26. Showcasing the action from previous rounds, RIDE TV also aired five one-hour INFR highlight shows in December 2019.

The 44th annual Indian National Finals Rodeo (INFR) once again took over the South Point Arena on October 22 – 26, 2019. More than 400 Native American athletes from 50 tribes in the U.S. and Canada competed in the Major and Junior-Senior events

In conjunction with the INFR the following workshops were conducted.

- Youth Workshops – Provided by NADC
- Financial awareness, banking, and budgeting was a workshop provided to the Jr contestants at the INFR.
- 24 Professional Development workshops were open to any and all during the 5-day event. These workshops were held in the convention center at South Point
